MEPI STUDENT LEADERS 2009-2010 Application Instructions

A program of the U.S. Department of State

SUMMER LEADERS PROGRAM

The MEPI Student Leaders program will award scholarships to outstanding students from the UAE for a five-week summer intensive program in the United States at a diverse network of accredited two- and four-year institutions. Participants will enroll in courses on leadership practices and capacities at their individual institutions for approximately four weeks. All institutions will have participants from multiple countries. Following the academic residency period, participants will join in an educational study tour running approximately one week. Participants will not select host institutions. Placements will not be changed. Participation is not for academic credit.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Leadership training at individual academic institutions will discuss leadership roots and capacity at the governmental, civil, community, and private sector levels. Alumni will be invited to a follow-up training approximately 6-8 months after the program's conclusion.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Candidates will be considered without respect to race, color, religion, national origin, or gender. Persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Competition for the MEPI Student Leaders program is merit-based and open to anyone who:

- Is a citizen, national or permanent resident qualified to hold a valid passport issued by the country from which applicant is applying;
- Is enrolled in first-, second- or third-year full-time undergraduate study at the time of application at a registered academic institution in his/her country and is in good academic standing. Part-time students or correspondence students are not eligible;
- Submits a complete application with all required documents by the application deadline;
- Is able to begin the program in the United States in June, 2009;
- Is able to receive and maintain a J-1 visa;
- Is committed to returning to his/her home country after completion of the program; and
- Is proficient in spoken and written English at the time of application.

Individuals in the following circumstances are NOT eligible for the MEPI Student Leaders Program:

- U.S. citizens and permanent residents of the United States;
- Individuals currently participating in academic, training, or research programs in the United States;
- Individuals currently residing or working outside of their home country;
- Individuals who have participated in an exchange visitor program sponsored or funded by the U.S. government for a period of more than six weeks and who have not fulfilled their two-year home residency requirement by the time of application;
- Individuals who have applied for U.S. permanent residency in the past three years;
- Local employees of the U.S. missions abroad who work for the U.S. Department of State during the period of their employment and for one year following the termination of employment;
- Immediate family members of U.S. Department of State employees for a period of one year following the termination of such employment. This provision does not disqualify self-supporting members of families who live apart from their parents;
- Persons arrested for, charged with, or convicted of a crime (excluding minor traffic violations);

MEPI STUDENT LEADERS 2009-2010 Application Instructions

A program of the U.S. Department of State

- Current employees of affiliated cooperating agencies/consultants and their immediate family members (spouses, parents, children, and siblings) for a period of one year following the termination of such employment.

The U.S. Department of State and the cooperating agency reserve the right to verify all of the information included in the application. In the event that there is a discrepancy, or information is found to be false, the application will immediately be declared invalid and the applicant ineligible.

Under the terms of the grant and the laws governing the J-1 visa required for participation in the MEPI Student Leaders Program, participants must return to their home country immediately upon completion of the program for a period of at least two years. Participants are not eligible for visa extensions under any circumstances. No exceptions will be made.

Applications not meeting the above eligibility requirements will not be forwarded to the selection committee.

PROVISIONS OF THE GRANT

If selected, the MEPI Student Leaders Program will cover a participant's:

- J-1 visa support;
- Round-trip coach class travel from participant's home city to host institution in the United States;
- Health benefits;
- University fees (including required books and supplies);
- Room and board (housing and meals);

SELECTION PROCESS AND CRITERIA

The MEPI Student Leaders Program is conducted as a merit-based open competition. After the deadline, all eligible applications will be reviewed, and chosen semi-finalists will be interviewed.

Selection panels will use the following criteria to evaluate applications (not in order of importance):

- Academic excellence
- Cross-cultural interest
- Demonstrated leadership potential
- Demonstrated proficiency in written and spoken English
- Flexibility and suitability as an exchange student
- Commitment to returning to their home country after completion of the program
- Preference will be given to students that represent disadvantaged, and underrepresented communities with no prior experience outside their countries

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions:

- Please answer ALL questions on the application in English.
- Include your full, legal name, family name (surname) as spelled on your passport.
- Include complete contact information (including index codes for all addresses and city/country codes for all phone and fax numbers).
- Do NOT leave any spaces blank. If a question does not apply to you, enter "N/A" (not applicable).

MEPI STUDENT LEADERS 2009-2010 Application Instructions

A program of the U.S. Department of State

- All forms and supporting materials should be typewritten (if possible) and submitted with the completed application. Handwritten applications must be neatly printed in black ink.
- Write your full name and country of citizenship in the top of each page.

Specific Instructions:

Field of Study (page 2)

- Indicate the main subject you are currently (or intend to be) studying at you home university as “Major Field of Study”
- If applicable, you may include your secondary discipline as the “Minor Field of Study”
- Example: Major Field of Study: Literature
Minor Field of Study: English Language and Literature

To determine the appropriate placement at a U.S. host institution, the cooperating agency needs to determine the last full year of academic study you have completed as of the start of the program. You need to check the box that lists the last full year of academic study you will have completed by July/August 2009.

For example, if you are in your first year of undergraduate study while completing the application, you will have finished your first year of undergraduate study by July/August 2009. Therefore, you should check the box to the left of “1st year undergraduate study.”

Language Proficiency (page 4)

You will need to self-assess your knowledge of foreign languages you choose to include in this section using “Excellent,” “Good,” or “Fair” to describe your ability.

Non-academic Activities (page 4)

List your participation in extracurricular, non-academic activities which can include, but not limited to, jobs or internships, community service, clubs or organizations, sports, or cultural activities. Include your role in the activity. For example:

Location/Institution/Contact	Type of Activity	Date of Participation
Rotary Club	Membership Chairperson	Jan. 2006-Dec. 2006

Personal Statement (page 6)

Use the personal statement to clarify your reasons for wanting to participate in the MEPI Student Leaders Program. You will want to outline your background and your goals for the future. The personal statement should be written with the objective of clarifying your interests for the selection and placement committees. Follow the suggested topics and be clear and concise in your essay.

SELECTED APPLICANTS WILL NEED TO PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING:

For those who have completed secondary school by the time of application submission:

- A copy of applicant’s high school diploma and leaving exam results with an accurate English translation, which may be done by applicant;
- A copy of applicant’s university transcript with an English translation;
- A copy of applicant’s passport or government-issued identification.
